Supervillain quiz

Name / team: _____ Date: _____

Every superhero needs a challenge - and these characters certainly know how to cause one.

Our family supervillain quiz mixes secret identities with recognisable clues. You don’t need to have watched every film or read every comic. Try the questions together and see which names you can work out.

Characters sometimes have different identities in different stories. This quiz uses the versions named in the questions.

Round one: Match the name

Match each person with the correct character.

Person	Your answer
1. Norman Osborn
2. Otto Octavius
3. Harvey Dent
4. Oswald Cobblepot

Choose from: Two-Face · Doctor Octopus · Penguin · Green Goblin

Round two: Follow the clues

5. Which Batman foe is famous for asking riddles?

6. Which plant-powered character has a name that sounds like something you should avoid touching?

7. Which wealthy Superman enemy has the initials L.L.?

8. Which Spider-Man enemy listed in round one uses mechanical arms?

Round three: Pick the right answer

9. Who is most closely associated with a coin toss? A. Two-Face · B. Penguin · C. Green Goblin

10. Who is particularly associated with unusual umbrellas? A. Doctor Octopus · B. Penguin · C. Lex Luthor

Supervillain quiz - answers

1. Green Goblin

2. Doctor Octopus

3. Two-Face

4. Penguin

5. Riddler

6. Poison Ivy

7. Lex Luthor

8. Doctor Octopus

9. A: Two-Face

10. B: Penguin

Invent a harmless villain

Create a character whose plans are annoying rather than frightening.

Perhaps Professor Soggy Socks hides everyone’s wellies, or The Midnight Crumbler eats the last biscuit and leaves the packet behind.

Draw a wanted poster with:

- The character’s name.

- Their ridiculous plan.

- Their greatest weakness.

- The person most likely to stop them.